Subject: English

Examination: Evaluation-1 (2018)

SECTION-A (READING)

A1. Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow:

Can you guess what the day of toys, candies, cakes, decorations and gift is called? No, it's not your birthday party. Here is another hint- we sing carols and decorate a special tree. Yes! You are right. It is Christmas time. The birth of baby Jesus is celebrated as Christmas day on 25th December. It is a holiday season all around the world. We send greeting cards to friends and relatives and exchange gifts. Wow! It means a lot of fun. Then we have the Christmas tree. Whether we have young or old everybody loves to decorate the tree with stars, fairies, shiny balls, bells, candy canes and even toys. It looks beautiful.

But what is the best part of Christmas? It is Father Christmas, popularly called Santa Claus. It is said that our beloved Santa lives in Finland. He lives there with Mrs. Claus and countless magical elves who have cute faces with pointed noses. Santa also has flying reindeer. Santa makes preparations for the children all over the world with the help of these countless elves. Toys and gifts are made in the workshop by these little elves who toil day and night to make children happy.

Then on Christmas eve, Santa glides on and visits every home at midnight and leaves gifts for all the good children. Children hang their stockings to receive the lovely candies and gifts made in the workshop.
