UNSEEN COMPREHENSION

Read the passage carefully and answer the following questions:

One summer's day, a Grasshopper was hopping and singing in a field. He saw an Ant trying to take an ear of corn with great difficulty to its home.

"Why don't you come and chat with me," asked the Grasshopper.

"I am collecting food for the winter," said the Ant, "and I advise you to do the same."

"Why bother about winter?" said the Grasshopper. "We have got plenty of food at present." But the Ant went on its way and continued its work.

When winter came, the Grasshopper found itself dying of hunger, while it saw the ants distributing, every day, corn and grain from the stores they had collected in summer.
